“To get a big guy playing tackle that can pass protect like he does and work his way down the field, God didn’t create many people like him.”

- NBC Sunday Night Football analyst
Cris Collinsworth

In 2000, he was a redshirt defensive lineman in college, laboring on Arkansas’ scout team. In 2004, he was a rookie free agent tight end just looking for playing time in Buffalo. Now, he is a nine-time Pro Bowl and six-time All-Pro offensive tackle who is building his resume for a spot in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. In between is the remarkable story of Jason Peters, who is regarded by many experts as the best left tackle in the game, and who has anchored the Eagles offensive line since being acquired in a trade from Buffalo in 2009. Peters was rewarded with a five-year contract following the 2013 season that will keep the tackle in Philadelphia through 2018.

Talent he’d like to have: To be an engineer for Microsoft and invent something as impactful as the Internet

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- With his 9th Pro Bowl selection and 7th as an Eagle in 2016, Peters has garnered the second-most Pro Bowl nods in team history behind Chuck Bednarik (eight)
- Earned Pro Bowl honors in five consecutive seasons (2007-11) and All-Pro honors following the 2007, ‘08, ‘10, ‘11, ‘13 and ‘14 campaigns
- Joined Frank “Bucko” Kilroy (1953-55) as the only two offensive linemen in franchise history to earn a Pro Bowl berth in three consecutive years
- Since Peters’ first Pro Bowl selection in 2007, only Cleveland’s Joe Thomas (nine) has been selected to as many Pro Bowls as a tackle
- Has two career touchdowns: Blocked a punt and recovered it in the end zone (12/19/04 at Cin.) and caught J.P. Losman’s first career TD pass (9/11/05 vs. Hou.)

BRAND JORDAN

Peters started a collection of Jordans in 2006 and now has a collection of over 2,500 that he neatly displays in one closet in his home. His personal favorites are the "black and red 13's"

BIRDSEED

- Originally signed with the Buffalo Bills in 2004 as a rookie free agent tight end with a signing bonus of $5,000. Peters went undrafted despite an impressive workout at the NFL Scouting Combine, including a 4.8 time in the 40-yard dash. Credits the draft-day snub with giving him extra motivation
- Credits former Bills coach Mike Mularkey for his career-changing switch from tight end to tackle in 2005. "Offensive line was one of our weak points and I remember wanting to get on the field any way I could. Coach Mularkey told me about it and Mouse (O-line coach Jim McNally) and I got to work."
- Was once taken out of a baseball game as a 9-year old after the umpire and opposing coach were convinced he was too old to play. "I struck out 9 batters in the first three innings. My mother had to go home and get my birth certificate before I was allowed back in the game. After I did, I hit a home run."

PERSONAL

- Single and resides in South Jersey and in Atlanta, TX. Has a son, Jayshaun, who plays football, baseball, and basketball. "He's 12 years old and he made the all-star team in all three sports," said his proud father
- Mother Telededo (pronounced Toledo) Simington and stepfather Ivory Simington. Has two sisters, Ivy and Chrissy
- Jason is quick to name his mother as the hero in his life, "My mom means everything to me. I definitely wouldn't be where I am today without her. She worked multiple jobs so she could provide for us. In the last year or so she lost over 100 pounds before undergoing two knee replacement surgeries. Now she's doing so much better. She continues to be such a big inspiration to me"
- Attended Queen City (TX) High School, earning All-District and All-Area honors as a defensive end. Also lettered in basketball, averaging 18.4 points per game to garner All-District and All-Area honors
- Owns anywhere from 10-15 cars and loves taking the time to get dirty under the hood to fix them up. His prized possession, though, is a PS Freightliner. "I use it to tow my camper and my other cars. I taught myself how to drive it."
- Lists dominoes, fishing, camping in Texas and DJing as hobbies. Also took up golf a few offseasons ago
- Favorite teams/athletes growing up: Buffalo Bills, Texas Rangers and Bruce Smith
- Began playing football as a 10-year-old offensive and defensive lineman for the Queen City Bulldogs

CUSTOM WHEELS

Peters owns a business in Shreveport, LA, named Greedy Boy Customs. "We do custom car work or on really anything with wheels," said Peters. "We've actually done work on a few golf carts." ... Thanks to his grandfather, Dallas Wiggins, buying and restoring cars has been a passion in Jason's life. "He used to take all these old cars and fix them up. When I was little, I was always hanging around watching him and my uncle, and I got hooked."

- An avid fisherman, Peters' most memorable catch was a 14-pound bass from a boat on a lake in Arkansas. "Me and about eight of my teammates would fish all the time in college. As soon as we got done with practice, we would go."
- Majored in vocational education
- Full name: Jason Raynard Peters

2014 HIGHLIGHTS

- Named second-team All-Pro by The Associated Press
- Garnered All-NFC honors from the Pro Football Writers of America
