- Former Louisville Head Coach Charlie Strong

The Eagles first-round draft choice in 2014, Marcus Smith transformed himself from a dual-threat high school quarterback to the AAC Defensive Player of the Year as a senior linebacker at Louisville. A native of Columbus, GA, the long-armed and athletic Smith garnered USA Today second-team All-America honors in 2013 after amassing 14.5 sacks. Originally recruited to Louisville as a quarterback, Smith made the switch to the defensive side of the ball as a freshman and went on to finish seventh in school history with 24 career sacks.

BIRDSEED

- Volunteers his time to the M2 Foundation, a charity organization that supports the sustainable transformation of individuals and the community through the advocacy of mindful-living. Smith specifically focuses his efforts on single mothers, as his sister is a single mom of three children. Follows in the footsteps of former NFL RB Warrick Dunn who also assists single-parent families through his Warrick Dunn Charities organization
- While attending a T.I. performance in Atlanta, Smith ran into a casting director who initiated an unprompted conversation about movie auditions. After getting some information on the process, Smith inquired about a role in the 2016 film, Barbershop 3. Smith auditioned for the part and ultimately landed it, but later declined the offer so that he could stay in Philly for the weeks leading up to OTAs. Would like to pursue another movie role at some point given his positive experience during the audition period
