

JAKE ROSENBERG

DIRECTOR OF FOOTBALL ADMINISTRATION

6TH YEAR IN NFL / 6TH IN PHILADELPHIA

COLLEGE: PENNSYLVANIA

Jake Rosenberg was named the team's director of football administration during the 2014 offseason after spending the previous two seasons as the team's manager of football administration.

Rosenberg works directly with executive vice president of football operations Howie Roseman and vice president of player personnel Joe Douglas on the development and implementation of the club's plan for player signings and acquisitions. He also plays a key role in all aspects of the salary cap management, contract negotiations, compliance with the NFL's Collective Bargaining Agreement, as well as the club's strategic planning.

Prior to joining the Eagles, Rosenberg was a bond and commodities trader from 1999- 2011. He was a partner in several different trading ventures.

The Monmouth County, NJ native graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1997 with a degree in economics and international relations. After his graduation, he worked in management consulting from 1997- 99.

Rosenberg and his wife, Marissa, have a son, Mason, and a daughter, Gabrielle.

ROSENBERG'S CAREER TIMELINE

2012-13	Philadelphia Eagles	Manager of Football Administration
2014-	Philadelphia Eagles	Director of Football Administration