MAN OF THE YEAR

Smith has been selected as his team's Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee three times (2016 with San Francisco; 2013-14 with Baltimore). Named after the late Hall of Fame running back of the Chicago Bears, the Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Award is given annually to the player who best exemplifies a commitment to philanthropy and community involvement.

"I've been giving back since day one, even when my family was the one receiving help. I always felt like your time was just as important as your money. I know what a lot of these families are going through and what a lot of these kids are going through. I wanted to be that support system for them, and that's why it's important for me to give back."

MAKING A DIFFERENCE

Smith used his time and resources to help those affected by the contaminated water supply in Flint, MI, throughout the 2016 offseason. Despite having no ties to Michigan, Smith and former teammate, Justin Forsett, teamed with The United Way, who helped coordinate school visits along with the donation of bottled water to Loving Hands, which is an adult and senior care service.

In April 2015, Smith participated in the 137th edition of the White House Easter Egg Roll, which is the largest annual public event at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue. More than 35,000 people gathered on the South Lawn to participate in egg hunts, live storytelling and fitness zones in conjunction with then-First Lady Michelle Obama's "Let's Move!" initiative.

TORREY SMITH FAMILY FUND

During his time in Baltimore, Smith launched the Torrey Smith Family Fund, which aims to provide youth with the tools they need to identify, unleash and reach their full potential.

Please visit TorreySmith.org for more information on his work in the community.

- In March 2017, Smith held his Sixth Annual Celebrity All-Star Basketball Game. All proceeds benefit the Torrey Smith Family Fund. The Smith family has been working in collaboration with established nonprofits and corporate partners to create important new programs in Baltimore.
- "Torrey's Back to School Fun Fest" is held each August with the purpose of ensuring that 600 low-income elementary and middle school students have the basic items needed to begin the school year. Each kid is able to meet Torrey and receive backpacks filled with all of the necessities to start off the school year successfully.
- Smith has annually hosted his "Teaming up with Torrey" holiday toy drive, which benefits youth from the Baltimore area's Dogwood Elementary, Sarah's Hope at Hannah Moore homeless shelter and the Boys and Girls Club of Metropolitan Baltimore.
- During the 2016 offseason, Smith funded every school in East Baltimore to help give students the tools and opportunities they need to succeed. He appeared on the "Late Show with Stephen Colbert" to promote the effort.
- Smith transformed a room at Gardenville Elementary (Baltimore, MD) into a literacy oasis with the focus on improving literacy in area schools in May 2015. He did the same for Moravia Park Elementary (Baltimore, MD) two months later in July.

BIRDSEED

Smith (born James Torrey Smith) and his wife, Chanel (who grew up in Conshohocken, PA, and attended Plymouth-Whitemarsh HS), have two sons: Torrey Jeremiah (T.J.) and Kameron James. Smith, the oldest of seven children in his family, graduated with a bachelor's degree in criminology and criminal justice from the University of Maryland in 2010.

During his time at Stafford HS (Falmouth, VA), Smith played wide receiver, running back and cornerback and saw action as a kick returner. Smith also played basketball in high school.
