MAN'S BEST FRIEND

Wentz has always been an avid dog lover. In November 2016, his 4-year-old golden retriever, Henley, gave birth to eight puppies. In total, nine golden retrievers lived in Wentz's home for more than a month before he gave seven away to family and friends, including teammate Jordan Matthews. Wentz kept one puppy and named him Jersey.

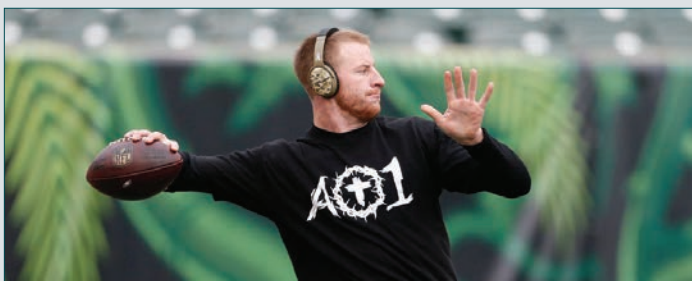

"I love dogs and being around them, and getting to work with Jersey and train him to be hopefully a really good hunting dog. It's a fun process getting away from everything else going on in life and just getting to spend time with them."

MISSION OF HOPE

In May 2017, Wentz and Jordan Matthews traveled to Port-au-Prince, Haiti with Mission of Hope, a Christian organization that seeks transformative change for the people of Haiti. During the weekend-long mission, Wentz and Matthews embraced a whole new culture while sharing their faith, playing with kids and helping paint homes in the community. The trip moved Wentz so much that he is already planning on going back.

"It was very eye-opening to see how much need there really is, and how they're lacking so many things materialistically. Emotionally and mentally, it was one of the most joyful communities. It was one of the most joyful things I've seen. I think the biggest thing I learned about myself was life isn't all about stuff. Going there and seeing it gave me an entirely different perspective just because they don't have much at all."

AUDIENCE OF ONE

A tattoo on Wentz's wrist reads, "Audience of One," which is a motto that helps shape his life. "It just means living for the Lord as my audience, trying to glorify everything. It's a good reminder for me every day."

THE GUNSLINGER

Even though he grew up a Minnesota Vikings fan, Wentz idolized Green Bay Packers legend Brett Favre. "I loved watching Favre play. I loved his gunslinger mentality and just the way he had fun. He was fun to watch and he played the game and enjoyed it. I think he played it the right way."

SETTING THE BAR HIGH

Impressively, Wentz was the valedictorian of his high school class and maintained a 4.0 GPA through his senior year at NDSU.

BROTHERLY LOVE

Wentz's brother, Zach, has been the biggest influence on his life and career. "My older brother played baseball at NDSU; he was good in school and everything. I always wanted to do better than him. I just wanted to always follow in his footsteps."

Wentz developed a passion for videography and created "Wentz Bros Outdoors" with Zach during the 2017 offseason, which is a YouTube channel that documents the brothers' outdoor ventures including hunting expeditions and worldwide travels.

FAMILY TIES

Wentz, who was born in Raleigh, NC, is the son of Doug Wentz and Cathy Anhalt. His father, Doug, played linebacker at Northern State University in Aberdeen, SD. His brother, Zach, was a four-year starting pitcher and infielder at North Dakota State, and his cousin, Conner, is currently a tight end for the Bison.
