MOTHERLY LOVE

Life was not always simple for Mathews. His mother, Tricia, became pregnant with him at 15 and dropped out of school as a result. They lived with her aunt for several months before a conflict pushed the two to a new home - a 1969 Oldsmobile. They lived in the car for several months before finding a stable footing at her grandmother's home. Due to his unconventional childhood, Tricia stayed on Ryan to maintain his grades and behave properly in order to avoid falling down a similar path.

BIRDSEED

Mathews is the son of Tricia Mathews and has one adopted brother, Dante. He began playing football at 7 years old. Mathews graduated from Fresno State with a degree in communications.

BODYFLY

Mathews collaborated with former Fresno State teammates Seyi Ajitotutu and Bobby Lepori, as well as former Navy officers Drei Carnes and Kareem Smith, in developing BodyFly Fitness, a light-weight personal exercise device designed to be carried to any desired workout location. Smith came up with original concept as he felt he was limited with his workout regimen while on deployment. To learn more, please visit BodyFlyFitness.com.

HIGH SCHOOL STANDOUT

Mathews was voted first-team All-State during his senior year at West High School (Bakersfield, CA) after leading the nation and the state of California with 3,396 rushing yards. Mathews, who also led the state that season with 44 rushing TDs, added 851 passing yards and 11 TDs from the quarterback position.

Mathews notched five 300+ yard rushing performances as a senior, including a season-high 415 yards vs. South High School (Bakersfield, CA). He also helped lead West to a CIF title during his junior year in 2005, rushing for 1,104 yards and 18 TDs.

Mathews' favorite personal moment in sports was when he rushed for 235 yards and 6 TDs in the Valley championship game as a junior.
