David Watford signed with the Eagles as an undrafted free agent during training camp in 2016, after previously participating in the club's rookie mini-camp on a tryout basis. Watford, who played quarterback over the span of four seasons between Virginia (2011, 2013-14) and Hampton (2015), combined for 4,681 yards and 32 TDs on 444-of-820 (54.1%) passing in 37 career games.

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- In 2015, appeared in 10 games with Hampton, completing 167-of-315 pass attempts for 2,088 yards, 21 TDs and 14 INTs, while also adding 182 rushing yards. Registered season highs with 335 passing yards and 5 passing TDs in his Pirates debut vs. Kentucky State (9/5/15)
- Before transferring to Hampton, saw action in five contests as a junior with Virginia in 2014. Only played quarterback against Richmond (9/6/14) and Kent State (9/27/14), totaling 45 yards on 3-of-4 passing. Played wide receiver and ran the Wildcat at No. 2 Florida State (11/8/14). Posted his first career reception (7 yards) as a wide receiver at Georgia Tech (11/1/14). Made his first collegiate start at wide receiver at Virginia Tech (11/28/14)
- Started all 12 games for the Cavaliers in 2013, setting a school single-season record for pass attempts (427) while posting the third-most completions (244) by a Virginia quarterback. Totaled school single-game records for pass attempts (61) and completions (43) vs. Georgia Tech (10/26/13), adding a career-high 376 passing yards
- Played in 10 games as a true freshman during the 2011 campaign, making his collegiate debut in the season opener vs. William & Mary (9/3/11). Tossed his first career touchdown pass (27 yards) in a 21-20 overtime win over Idaho (10/1/11)

BIRDSEED

- Is the son of Angela Watford. Has one brother, Jaren. Majored in sports administration
- Prepped at Hampton (VA) High School, the alma mater of former ACC standout QBs Ronald Curry (North Carolina) and Tyrod Taylor (Virginia Tech). Like Curry, made the move from QB to WR upon entering the professional ranks
- Produced over 3,000 yards of total offense his senior year, earning first-team All-Peninsula District and second-team All-Eastern Region honors. Passed for 1,478 yards and added another 795 on the ground. Did not throw an INT in 157 attempts his senior season
- Rated by Rivals.com as the No. 19 recruit in Virginia and the nation's No. 29-ranked QB
