EXOTIC ANIMALS

Hollins, whose dream job is to own a world-renowned aquarium, has been interested in exotic animals for quite some time. He is the owner of two snakes – a Ball Python and a Sunglow Boa – and has previously owned turtles. He also breeds African Cichlid fish. However, Hollins' father, Richard, might have the most interesting pet story in their family.

"My dad had a lion growing up. His dad had it in a big cage in his yard. I guess in Ohio the permits aren't as difficult to get exotic animals. I don't know how Philly will feel about some of the exotic animals, but I might have to get a couple."

BIRDSEED

Hollins is the son of Karyn and Richard Hollins. Hollins prepped at Wootton High School (Rockville, MD), where he played wide receiver and on defense and also participated in basketball and lacrosse. He also spent a postgrad year at Fork Union Military Academy (Fork Union, VA). Hollins graduated from the University of North Carolina with a degree in exercise and sport science.

WALK-ON STORY

Hollins, who served four terms as a special teams captain at North Carolina, originally joined the Tar Heels football team as a walk-on and finished his career as one of the top receivers in school history, totaling 81 receptions for 1,667 yards (20.6 avg.) and 20 TDs. Hollins credits taking advantage of special teams opportunities for leading to his on-field success in college.

"Special teams is really the way I got on the field. You have one opportunity, one play, to make a difference, and I take that play very seriously. It's either field position or it's points, so it's just as important as any offensive or defensive snap."
