ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

21ST YEAR IN NFL • 3RD IN PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE: VILLANOVA

Andy Weidl enters his third season as the team’s assistant director of player personnel after previously serving as an East regional scout for the Baltimore Ravens from 2013-16.

Weidl played an integral role in helping construct the team’s Super Bowl LII-winning roster. The Eagles captured the first Super Bowl title in franchise history with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots on February 4, 2018.

Weidl was first hired by the Ravens in 2005 as a West area scout and served in that capacity for four seasons before transitioning into a Northeast scout for the club in 2009.

“Andy comes from the [Ravens general manager] Ozzie Newsome tree of talent evaluators in Baltimore,” said Howie Roseman, Eagles executive vice president of football operations. “I spoke with Tom Donahoe, who hired Andy in Pittsburgh, and he had nothing but great things to say about his work ethic. You can sense his drive for scouting right off the bat and he has spent his entire career working for an opportunity like this. We are very pleased to have him join us.”

Over the course of Weidl’s career in Baltimore, the team acquired the following players from his focus areas: DL Timmy Jernigan (who the Eagles acquired via trade during the 2017 off season), FB Kyle Juszczyk, five-time Pro Bowler DL Haloti Ngata, WR Torrey Smith (who the Eagles signed as a free agent in 2017), QB Tyrod Taylor and OL John Urschel.

Prior to his stint with the Ravens, Weidl was a Northeast area scout (2003-04) and a national combine scout (2000-02) for the New Orleans Saints.

Weidl began his scouting career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1998, where he evaluated college and professional players for two seasons as a player personnel assistant.

Celebrated as the Thomas J. Burke Award recipient for his “consistent performance and dedication” as an offensive lineman at Villanova, Weidl earned his undergraduate degree in communications (1996) and a master’s degree in human resource development (1997).

A native of Pittsburgh, PA, Weidl and his wife, Aimee, have a daughter, Payten, and a son, Luke.
