HUNGRY DOGS RUN FASTER

Dressed in Mummer regalia at the podium atop the steps of the Philadelphia Museum of Art, Kelce closed the Eagles’ Parade of Champions with an emotional, powerful and memorable speech that solidified his unique place in Philadelphia folklore. Inspired by the “underdog” theme associated with the Eagles’ playoff run, Kelce delivered an ode to his teammates and the resilient spirit of the city of Philadelphia.

“It was a very real moment for myself and I think that the fans and really everybody watching it picked up on that as well, that it was really coming from the heart. It wasn’t some sort of show, even though it might have looked like it with the Mummer outfit and all the spectacle around it. It was something that came from a burning place down inside that had been engrained through a lot of hard work, a lot of failures, a lot of success throughout my entire career, and the same thing with the city and this entire organization.”

FOOTBALL IS FAMILY

Kelce comes from a football lineage, as his younger brother, Travis, was a teammate at Cincinnati (2008-10) as a tight end and was drafted by Kansas City in 2013. His uncle, Don Blalock, played defensive tackle for Purdue (1976-77) and his grandfather, Don Blalock, played football at Ohio University.

BIRDSEED

Kelce is the son of Donna and Ed Kelce. Donna works in banking, while Ed is a sales rep in the steel business. He cites his dad as the biggest influence on his career.

Kelce graduated from Cincinnati with a bachelor’s degree in marketing.
