EXPERT UNICYCLIST

Goedert is not just an athlete in the traditional sense - he is also a skilled unicyclist. "I was looking through the JCPenney catalog one day - the Christmas catalog, the thick one. I saw a unicycle and I told my mom that I wanted one. She said, 'Well, your grandpa has a bunch of unicycles. We used to ride them all the time.' So I said, 'Can we go get one?' Let's do it.' So I learned how. I have three other cousins that know how, too. And we ride in parades or centennials, 125th, Fourth of July parades in small towns around Britain. It was one of the biggest attractions in the parade, people love seeing it." Perhaps the greatest feat of Goedert's unicycling career is learning how to ride a six-foot unicycle, which he says requires starting off the back of a truck.

DALLAS IN PHILLY

Goedert's first name, Dallas, comes from his dad, who was a Dallas Cowboys fan, though his stepdad raised him to root for the Green Bay Packers. That being said, Goedert assures that everyone in his family now loves the Eagles. Additionally, shortly after he was selected by Philadelphia in the 2nd round of the 2018 NFL Draft, Goedert took notice of a handful of GoFundMe pages lobbying for him to change his name to 'Philly.'

"We're going to have a little bit of trouble with that, but hopefully I can make enough plays that they'll get over [my name being Dallas]."

BASKETBALL STAR

Goedert was a very talented basketball player and considers the sport his first 'true love.' However, his mom helped him focus on football with some friendly advice. "She said I'm going to have a better chance playing college football than basketball because 22 people start in football and only five start in basketball. I think she was just telling me that being 6'5" is being too short to be a three, four or five guy in the NBA."

Goedert definitely notices the impact that basketball has had on his football career. "Beating man coverage is a lot like driving to the hole, doing a crossover to get by somebody. And then any time you're in the red zone you're using your body like you're boxing out, or go up and catch a fade ball like you are high-pointing a rebound. A lot of things translate."

BIRDSEED

Goedert was a two-time honorable mention all-state selection and three-time all-conference pick in both football and basketball at Britton-Hecla High School.
