2018 EAGLES MAN OF THE YEAR

In 2018, Long was named the Eagles' nominee for the 2018 Walter Payton Man of the Year Award presented by Nationwide. The award was established in 1970 and recognizes an NFL player for his excellence on and off the field.

"It's an honor to be named the Eagles 2018 Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee and to be in the company of 31 of my peers that have proven their commitment and dedication to bettering their communities," said Long. "I'm humbled by this recognition and energized to continue to improve the lives of those most at risk at home and around the world."

In 2018, Long continued more than a decade of community service by creating the First Quarter for Literacy program, which provides under-served Philadelphia families, and families nationwide, with free books, literacy resources and mentoring services. To help amplify those efforts, Long donated 100 percent of his first four game checks to the program, as well as to the development of six "Chris Long Book Nooks" that serve as neighborhood reading areas for Philadelphia families.

"Chris has done a remarkable job of leveraging his platform as a professional athlete to create life-changing opportunities for so many people," said Jeffrey Lurie, Philadelphia Eagles Chairman and CEO. "Through his foundation and other charitable initiatives led by Chris, many systemic issues facing our society have been addressed with a thoughtful, hands-on approach. In his efforts to build stronger communities, engage in international programs and advocate for educational equality, Chris has consistently demonstrated tremendous character and leadership. His humanitarian efforts are very deserving of this nomination and I am proud to call him a Philadelphia Eagle."

CHRIS LONG FOUNDATION

In 2015, the Chris Long Foundation was launched to raise money for Waterboys, an initiative dedicated to building wells for communities in East Africa.

Long was named the NFLPA Community MVP for Week 2 of the 2017 season for “his ongoing efforts to enhance the lives of others through programs focused on youth, clean water, military appreciation and homelessness.”

Early in the 2017 season, The Chris Long Foundation, in partnership with Boys & Girls Clubs of Central Virginia and St. Anne’s-Belfield School, announced that Long donated his first six game checks of the season to fund two seven-year scholarships in his hometown of Charlottesville, VA.

Later in the year, Long announced that he would donate the remainder of his game checks (10) to organizations supporting educational equity and opportunity in St. Louis, Boston and Philadelphia. Through the Pledge 10 for Tomorrow campaign, fans and businesses were encouraged to make their own pledge to one of the three cities. The effort raised over $1.3 million, in addition to the $50,000 that Long donated to College Bound and The Little Bit Foundation, which are located in the St. Louis area (regional winner).
