

RYAN PAGANETTI

ASSISTANT LINEBACKERS

5TH YEAR IN NFL · 5TH IN PHILADELPHIA
COLLEGE: DARTMOUTH

Ryan Paganetti originally joined the Eagles as an analyst in March of 2015. He excelled in this role for two years, before being named a coaching assistant in 2017, working with the linebackers. The Bedford, MA, native was elevated to defensive quality control/assistant linebackers coach in February of 2018.

Prior to his work with the Eagles, Paganetti spent three seasons as an assistant coach at the Belmont Hill School from 2012-14, and served as a scouting intern for the Dallas Cowboys in the summer of 2013.

Paganetti played running back at Dartmouth College where he earned a degree in economics in 2014.

COACHING TIMELINE
2019-	Philadelphia Eagles	Assistant Linebackers
2018	Philadelphia Eagles	Defensive Quality Control/ Assistant Linebackers
2017	Philadelphia Eagles	Coaching Assistant/Linebackers
2015-17	Philadelphia Eagles	Analyst
2013	Dallas Cowboys	Scouting Intern
2012-14	Belmont Hill School	Assistant Coach