

ANDY WEIDL

VICE PRESIDENT OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

22ND YEAR IN NFL · 4TH IN PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE: VILLANOVA

Andy Weidl enters his fourth season with the Philadelphia Eagles and was promoted to vice president of player personnel during the 2019 offseason. Weidl originally joined the organization in 2016 as the assistant director of player personnel, and was promoted to director of player personnel in 2018.

Weidl has played an integral role in helping construct rosters that won five playoff games between 2017-18, including the first Super Bowl championship in franchise history in 2017. That year, the Eagles captured Super Bowl LII with a 41-33 victory over the New England Patriots on February 4, 2018.

Prior to joining the Eagles in 2016, Weidl worked for the Baltimore Ravens from 2005-16 and was on Ravens general manager Ozzie Newsome’s staff when Baltimore won Super Bowl XLVII in 2012. In Baltimore, Weidl worked with former Eagles vice president of player personnel and current New York Jets general manager Joe Douglas. Weidl originally joined the Ravens staff in 2005 as a West area scout and served in that capacity for four seasons before transitioning into a Northeast scout for the club in 2009.

After working in that role for four years, Weidl finished his Ravens career as the club’s East regional scout from 2013-16.

Over the course of Weidl’s career in Baltimore, the team acquired the following players from his focus areas: DL Timmy Jernigan, FB Kyle Juszczyk, five-time Pro Bowler DL Haloti Ngata, WR Torrey Smith, QB Tyrod Taylor and OL John Urschel.

Prior to his stint with the Ravens, Weidl was a Northeast area scout (2003-04) and a national combine scout (2000-02) for the New Orleans Saints.

Weidl began his scouting career with the Pittsburgh Steelers in 1998, where he evaluated college and professional players for two seasons as a player personnel assistant.

Celebrated as the Thomas J. Burke Award recipient for his “consistent performance and dedication” as an offensive lineman at Villanova, Weidl earned his undergraduate degree in communications (1996) and a master’s degree in human resource development (1997).

WEIDL'S CAREER TIMELINE
1998-99	Pittsburgh Steelers	Player Personnel Assistant
2000-02	New Orleans Saints	National Combine Scout
2003-04	New Orleans Saints	Northeast Area Scout
2005-08	Baltimore Ravens	West Area Scout
2009-12	Baltimore Ravens	Northeast Scout
2013-16	Baltimore Ravens	East Regional Scout
2016-17	Philadelphia Eagles	Assistant Director of Player Personnel
2018	Philadelphia Eagles	Director of Player Personnel
2019-	Philadelphia Eagles	Vice President of Player Personnel