

IAN CUNNINGHAM

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF PLAYER PERSONNEL

12TH YEAR IN NFL • 3RD IN PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE: VIRGINIA

Ian Cunningham was hired as the Eagles director of college scouting during the 2017 offseason and was promoted to assistant director of player personnel during the 2019 offseason.

Prior to joining the Eagles staff, Cunningham spent the first nine years of his NFL career with the Baltimore Ravens. In Baltimore, Cunningham worked with Eagles vice president of player personnel Andy Weidl, as well as former Eagles vice president of player personnel and current New York Jets general manager Joe Douglas. Cunningham joined the Ravens as a player personal assistant in 2008 and was promoted to southeast area scout in 2013. In his final four seasons with the Ravens, Cunningham was primarily responsible for scouting schools in the Southeastern Conference and Atlantic Coast Conference.

Cunningham earned his bachelor's degree in psychology from Virginia in 2007 and went on to earn a master's in education in 2008.

A former offensive lineman, he started 30 games for the Cavaliers during his collegiate football career and earned honorable mention freshman All-American honors from Rivals.com and ACC All-Freshman Team recognition from The Sporting News.

A standout offensive and defensive lineman at Hebron High School in Carrollton, TX, Cunningham earned numerous all-state and all-area honors as a senior.

CUNNINGHAM'S CAREER TIMELINE
2008-12	Baltimore Ravens	Player Personnel Assistant
2013-15	Baltimore Ravens	Southeast Area Scout
2016	Baltimore Ravens	Southeast/Southwest Area Scout
2017-18	Philadelphia Eagles	Director of College Scouting
2019-	Philadelphia Eagles	Assistant Director of Player Personnel