

SHAWN HEINLEN

SOUTHWEST AREA SCOUT

19TH YEAR IN NFL • 2ND IN PHILADELPHIA COLLEGE: UNIVERSITY OF FLORIDA

Shawn Heinlen was hired by the Eagles as a southwest area scout in the 2018 offseason after serving as a consultant for the Reese’s Senior Bowl in 2017.

Prior to joining the Eagles scouting staff, Heinlen spent 16 seasons with the Buffalo Bills. From 2003-17, he served as a college area scout after being promoted from the team’s college scouting administrator (2001-2003). Heinlen began his career with the Bills in 1999 as a training camp intern.

After his internship with Buffalo, Heinlen worked as a player personnel analyst with the NFL league office from 2000-2001 before returning to the Bills in 2001.

Heinlen played quarterback at North Central College in Naperville, IL, before transferring to the University of Florida where he served as a student assistant for the Gators Football team. He received his bachelor’s degree in Finance and a master’s degree in Sports Administration from the University of Florida.

Heinlen resides in Celina, TX, with his wife, Missy, and their two sons, Colton and Knox.
