A valuable member of Philadelphia's offensive line, Halapoulivaati Vaitai (pronounced hal-lah-poo-lee-VAH-tee VIE-tie) was originally selected in the 5th round (164th overall) of the 2016 NFL Draft. In Week 8 of 2017, Vaitai took over as the Eagles' starting LT following a season-ending injury to Jason Peters and played a crucial role on Philadelphia's Super Bowl LII-winning offensive line.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Started three regular-season games at RT and one postseason game at LT during his 2019 campaign
- Appeared in a career-high 16 regular-season games in 2017, including 10 starts (9 at LT, 1 at RT). In Week 8, took over as the starting LT following a season-ending injury to Jason Peters and played a crucial on the Eagles' Super Bowl LII-winning offensive line. Helped the team rank 3rd in the NFL in offensive points (414, tied) and rushing offense (132.2) and 7th in total offense (365.8)
- Filled in at RT for the Eagles as a rookie in 2016, appeared in 7 games (6 starts)
- Started and played in his first career game at Was. (10/16/16)

COLLEGE HIGHLIGHTS

- Competed in 42 games (31 starts) at both tackle positions for TCU (2012-15), where he was a two-time All-Big 12 second-team selection
- As a senior in 2015, was awarded with second-team All-Big 12 accolades after starting in 11 of 12 contests, anchoring an o-line that contributed to a 1,000-yard receiver and a 1,000-yard rusher in the same season for just the second time in TCU history
- Earned All-Big 12 second-team honors in 2014 after starting at right tackle for all 13 games. Was part of an offense that ranked second in the nation in scoring (46.5 ppg) and tied for fifth in total offense (533.0 ypg), in addition to setting single-season school records for points (604), passing yards (4,240), total yards (6,929), first downs (331) and plays (1,038)

BAND OF BROTHERS

Halapoulivaati is the oldest of three Vaitai brothers. Twins Kevin and Will are just 11 months younger than 'Big V' and the three played on the offensive line together at Haltom (TX) HS. After playing TE as a freshman, 'Big V' moved to RT as a sophomore and immediately earned a starting job. That year, he was joined on the o-line by Kevin (LG) and Will (RG). Big V stayed at RT for his final two years at Haltom, while Kevin moved to C and Will moved to LG.

POLYNESIAN ROOTS

Vaitai learned to play the guitar at a young age when his cousin taught him three chords. He plays by ear and does not read music. "Polynesians are very musically talented and they always play by ear. I also know how to play the ukulele, but prefer the guitar because it's bigger." Growing up, Vaitai and his family ate a lot of traditional Polynesian foods. "Roasted pig is a staple and spinach is a main ingredient in every dish."

APPLIED LEARNING

Vaitai majored in criminal justice at TCU with a minor in social work. After his playing career is over, he wants to work for the Department of Homeland Security. In Fall 2015, Vaitai interned with Youth Advocate Programs, Inc., an agency that provides direct service to vulnerable and high-need youth and families. As a part of his internship, Big V was paired with a sixth grader who suffered from severe ADHD. "My job was to mentor him and take him out after school. It was a very eye-opening experience. The hardest part of the job is having to shut down your feelings and emotions. You get exposed to serious and dire living conditions, but our only job is to be a big brother to the kids. We can't try to fix everything."

BIRDSEED

Vaitai is named after his father's cousin. His parents, Talikavili and Shirley Vaitai, are originally from Tonga and moved to the United States in the 1980s. Vaitai and his wife, Caitlin, have one son, Vaati. The family has two dogs: a terrier named Abby and a chihuahua named Coffee.
