BIRDSEED

Douglas is one of seven siblings and was raised by his grandmother in East Orange, NJ. He credits his little league baseball coach, Mike Davis, for helping turn his life around. Davis was also the P.A. announcer for East Orange HS and a mentor for at-risk youth. "He was the one who took me out of the streets. He made sure we did what we had to do."

Nassau Community College had no dorms, so Douglas lived in an apartment eight miles from campus and took the bus to and from school and practice each day. On his own financially, Douglas slept on the floor and battled hunger.

Douglas would wait until the end of the day to eat and often ordered off the dollar menu at McDonald's, eating half of the meal and saving the rest for later. "Every time I eat, I always think I'm making up a meal that I missed in junior college ... It definitely fuels me all the time, just thinking about what I went through."
