

NICK WILLIAMS

COACHES ASSISTANT

NFL Experience: 3rd season (3rd with Eagles)

College: Humboldt State Hometown: Rocklin, CA

Nick Williams was hired as a coaches assistant during the 2018 offseason and has spent each of the last three years with the Eagles in that role. Williams joined Philadelphia following a three-year stint with the coaching staff at Humboldt State (Arcata, CA).

Williams began his career as a running backs coach at Humboldt State in 2015, when the Lumberjacks won the Great Northwest Athletic Conference championship and advanced to the Division II playoffs for the first time in over 40 years. He transitioned to working as Humboldt State's wide receivers coach in 2016 and then served as the program's wide receivers and running backs coach in 2017.

A native of Rocklin, CA, Williams attended Humboldt State, where he played wide receiver from 2011-13. He was also a member of the Lumberjacks' 2011 GNAC championship team.

COACHING TIMELINE

YEARS	TEAM	POSITION
2018-	Philadelphia Eagles	Coaches Assistant
2017	Humboldt State	Wide Receivers & Running Backs
2016	Humboldt State	Wide Receivers
2015	Humboldt State	Running Backs